The Graymoor Ecumenical & Interreligious Institute is a ministry of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, located at The Interchurch Center in New York City with a Business Office at Graymoor in Garrison, New York. The Graymoor Institute promotes ecumenism and interreligious understanding through its support of theological dialogue, research and publication. The Institute publishes Ecumenical Trends, a journal of ecumenical and interreligious articles, news and dialogue. The Institute produces resources in print and on this website for the annual observance of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (traditionally January 18-25). A staff of ecumenists and scholars-at-large serves local, national and international communities in dialogues, lectures and workshops to promote Christian unity and interreligious understanding. The Graymoor Institute's staff serves on the Commission on Faith and Order of the National Council of Churches of Christ USA. Visit our Society of the Atonement and our Centro Pro Unione.
